

Welcome to the sixth edition of Better Health! the newsletter of Debra Moore Associates

A busy time!

The last few weeks has seen the publication of a number of key reports and guidance relating to health including a resource Pack to support the implementation of Valuing People Now which includes the new guidance on Health Action Planning and Health Facilitation. I am sure these documents will be helpful in keeping up the interest and energy around reducing the health inequalities faced by people with learning disabilities.

Best Wishes

Ombudsmen's report calls for urgent review of health and social care for people with learning disabilities

An independent report, based on six investigations, published by the Health Service Ombudsman and the Local Government Ombudsman reveals:

Significant and distressing failures in service across health and social care;

- One person died as a consequence of public service failure. It is likely the death of another individual could have been avoided, had the care and treatment provided not fallen so far below the relevant standards.
- People with learning disabilities experienced prolonged suffering and poor care, and some of these failures were for disability related reasons;
- Some public bodies failed to live up to human rights principles, especially those of dignity and equality;
- Many organisations responded inadequately to the complaints made against them which left family members feeling drained and demoralised.

Six Lives: the provision of public services to people with learning disabilities can be downloaded at www.ombudsman.org.uk.

Valuing People Now Resource Pack launched!!!

The Department of Health has launched a resource pack to support the implementation of Valuing People Now - this includes the new guidance on Health Action Planning and Health Facilitation. Improving the patient experience:

The King's Fund's Enhancing the Healing Environment programme

Since 2000, the Department has supported the King's Fund's Enhancing the Healing Environment, a nurse-led environmental improvement programme. An extension to the original programme has included Trusts providing services for people with learning disabilities as well as those providing mental health services. There are some truly remarkable examples of innovative and beautiful spaces.

Events & Training

We provide training and consultancy services to commissioners, providers, self advocacy organisations and family carers.

Our focus is on promoting person centred and inclusive health services for everyone including people with learning disabilities, mental health needs and older people.

We do this by providing bespoke support, training events and conferences to share the latest thinking and good practice.

Finally...

I hope you have found this newsletter helpful - we welcome comments and feedback. If you would like to include an article or news item in our next edition please contact us on info@debramooreassociates.com or visit our website www.debramooreassociates.com

Health Action Planning and Health Facilitation

MAKING IT HAPPEN!

Debra Moore Associates are pleased to announce the following timely and important workshops to help support and promote the implementation of Health Action Planning and Health Facilitation.

Workshop 1

Leading and Managing Local Change to Support Better Health

Workshop 2

1:1 Health Facilitation - The Basics

Workshop 3

Including Everyone - Health Action Planning and Health Facilitation with People with Complex Needs

Workshops have been developed and will be delivered by recognised experts in the field: Debra Moore, Anne Hutchinson, Laura Summers and Sam Rich.

This series of workshops are tailored to support participants to attain relevant skills and knowledge and make the most of their time.

You can attend all three workshops but we have designed them so that you can attend the ones that suit your needs best, for example workshop 2 is particularly aimed at people who will be involved in developing and facilitating individual Health Action Plans.

If you are not sure if which ones are right for you please contact us.
